Art.3) Upon receipt the images in contest will be showed within seven days as "Author's Personal Gallery" on zimmerit.com website.

Art.4) There are 2 categories: Seniores and Juniores
In Juniores will be allowed authors under 18 years old.

Registration in the Juniores category must be done and compiled by a parent , or adult relative, with the parent/relative personal data, writing only the minor full name and the first letter of his last name (ex: a minor named John Smith must be written as John S.)

Art.5) All modelling scales are accepted for both categories

Art.6) All the authors can compete with more than one model, sending at least 3 image and no more than 6 images for each model presented.

This is a photographic contest. Therefore the Author must make at least one image capable of a new visual expression and interpretation of photographic modelling. An image capable of distinguishing the model. To valorize its uniqueness. Is allowed the use of graphic software to this end. The images must be in JPEG format, 800x600 pixel, maximum.

Art. 7) The Web Awards Armour 2008 "Auriga-Zimmerit.com" is a photographic award. In addition to standard modelling evaluation criteria (assembling and painting quality, originality of the subject, historical accuracy, total or partial scratchbuilding and so on), a special relevance will be conferred to the overall quality of the photographic images that will be sent.

Every single picture will be assessed on these features:

Realism/Beauty/How it has been shot/How it has been drafted. All these features will be added to the final score.

Only color pictures are allowed.

Art. 8) Also collective works are allowed to participate (ex: a model assembled by A, painted by B and shot by C). The collaborators' names must be included in the inscription form in the field: Model Description. However only one author could compete in the Award.

Art. 9) Subjects already published by Zimmerit.com cannot compete.

Art. 10) The pictures sent for the contest will be not returned. They could be used and published by Zimmerit.com and by Gruppo editoriale Auriga Publishing International.

Art. 11) The panel of judges of Web Awards Armour 2008 "Auriga-Zimmerit.com" will be composed by four members: one Chairman and three members: one modeller, two professional photographers.
